20th Sunday in Ordinary Time
 18 August 2019 - Year C

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
 This Sunday St. Marys Church South Brisbane celebrates their parish feast day on the solemnity of the Assumption of Blessed virgin Mary. I take this opportunity to thank all the parishioners for their commitment and generosity in building up the parish community as a living witness of the Jesus Christ. A special appreciation for all the volunteers, ministers, readers, acolytes and choir for their dedication and love for the church which the mystical body of Christ. May the blessed Virgin Mary assumed into heaven intercede for all of us and our families to grow in faith and love towards Jesus.
 The gospel for this Sunday speaks about the fire of Gods purifying love and cleansing word. Jesus says "I have come to bring fire to the earth and how I wish it were blazing already. The image of fire in biblical times is often associated with God and with action in the world and in the lives of his people. God sometimes manifests his presence by use of fire such as Gods revelation to Moses through burning bush in the wilderness. Fire is also a sign and symbol of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit.
 We need this fire of God in our lives and families more than ever. Sometimes our hearts are cold and dead because of our sins and selfishness. We need the fire of God which is Holy spirit and the word of God to ignite all of us to have the trues love of God which unites and purifies as children of God.

God bless you and have great weekend
 Fr. Joshy Prappully Ofm Cap
 Parish priest.

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon Ps 83: 10-11

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield;
 and look on the face of your anointed one;
 one day within your courts
 is better than a thousand elsewhere.

First reading Jeremiah 38:4-6,8-10

The king's leading men spoke to the king. 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king. 'My lord king,' he said 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well, where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 39:2-4,18

Lord, come to my aid!

I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry. R/

He drew me from the deadly pit, from the miry clay. He set my feet upon a rock and made my footsteps firm. R/

He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God. Many shall see and fear and shall trust in the Lord. R/

As for me, wretched and poor, the Lord thinks of me. You are my rescuer, my help, O God, do not delay. R/

Second reading Hebrews 12:1-4

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shameful of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

Gospel Acclamation John 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!
 My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
 I know them, and they follow me.
 Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 12:49-53

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

Communion Antiphon Ps 129: 7

With the Lord there is mercy;
 in him is plentiful redemption.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Is 66:18-21;
2nd reading: Heb 12:5-7, 11-13; Gospel: Lk 13: 22-30

Youth Corner

Stuck? Feel Like Giving Up?

Sooner or later, you're going to run into an "I can't do this" moment. One powerful lesson I've learnt from the Bible is to turn your "I can't do this" into a "How can I overcome this?" A lot of people talk about how God promised to give the Israelites the land of milk and honey (Numbers 13). What some may not realise is that the great land was filled with all sorts of opponents, even giants! Because the Israelites were afraid, the Lord brought them back into the wilderness. When God answers prayers, for example, when you get into the uni course you prayed for, or when you get that job you prayed for, or when you get into that team you prayed to get into - the challenges won't end. In fact they will get bigger. But here's where you can't give up. You need to press into God and also ask, "How can I overcome this challenge?" What challenges are you facing? What seems impossible? Pray about them, meditate on how you can overcome them and then take action! Ask God how you can achieve the impossible today. Come join us at our next event on 22 September!
