Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often con-fuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time 28 July 2019 - Year C

Dear Parishners

As informed, the Provincial has appointed Fr Joshy Parappully OFM Cap as the new Parish Priest of St Mary's Parish and Administrator of Dutton Park Parish. Fr Joshy was an Assistant Parish Priest of Plumption, NSW. With him being transferred to Brisbane, I have been asked to take up his position as Assistant Parish Priest of Plumpton. Fr Joshy is in the process of acquiring all necessary documents to carry out his ministry in Queensland. Once he obtains the requirements, he will begin his ministry.

Currently there will not be an Assistant Parish Priest. But the provincial will appoint one in the future. The Capuchin Friars of Dutton Park will help out the new Parish Priest in the celebration of the masses and other ministries. In the interim, I will handle the responsibilities of the parish, until the new Parish Priest takes over officially.

I don't know yet which day would be my last day in Brisbane. But I am grateful to God, for giving me a chance to render my services in these parishes. Hence, I take this opportunity to thank all of you for your support, guidance and encouragement to me in my priestly life and ministry. It has been a short journey for me in these parishes along with you all, but nevertheless a fruitful one.

In this period, I have grown as a person and have been enriched with a wealth of experience to rely on. Kindly continue to keep me in your prayers for my new ministry and I too assure you of my prayers. Kindly support and assist the new Parish Priest in his ministry. Once again thank you to everyone. May God bless you all and may both the parishes continue to grow, inspire and prosper in God's love and

Peace and Blessings Fr Bollar Barreto OFM Cap

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon

Cf. Ps 67: 6-7, 36

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

First reading Genesis 18:20-32

The Lord said, 'How great an outcry there is against Sodom and Gomorrah! How grievous is their sin! I propose to go down and see whether or not they have done all that is alleged in the outcry against them that has come up to me. I am determined to know.' The men left there and went to Sodom while Abraham remained standing before the Lord. Approaching him he said, 'Are you really going to destroy the just man with the sinner? Perhaps there are fifty just men in the town. Will you really overwhelm them, will you not spare the place for the fifty just men in it? Do not think of doing such a thing: to kill the just man with the sinner, treating just and sinner alike! Do not think of it! Will the judge of the whole earth not administer justice?' the Lord replied, 'If at Sodom I find fifty just men in the town, I will spare the whole place because of them.' Abraham replied, 'I am bold indeed to speak like this to my Lord, I who am dust and ashes. But perhaps the fifty just men lack five: will you destroy the whole city for five?' 'No,' he replied 'I will not destroy it if I find forty-five just men there.' Again Abraham said to him, 'Perhaps there will only be forty there.' 'I will not do it' he replied 'for the sake of the forty.' Abraham said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry, but give me leave to speak: perhaps there will only be thirty there.' 'I will not do it' he replied 'if I find thirty there.' He said, 'I am bold indeed to speak like this, but perhaps there will only be twenty there.' 'I will not destroy it' he replied 'for the sake of the twenty.' He said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry if I speak once more: perhaps there will only be ten.' 'I will not destroy it' he replied 'for the sake of the ten.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 137(138):1-3,6-8 R/ Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart: you have heard the words of my mouth. Before the angels I will bless you. I will adore before your holy temple. R/

I thank you for your faithfulness and love, which excel all we ever knew of you. On the day I called, you answered: you increased the strength of my soul. R/

The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar. Though I walk in the midst of affliction

You stretch out your hand and save me, your hand will do all things for me. Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands. R/

you give me life and frustrate my foes. R/

Second reading Colossians 2:12-14

You have been buried with Christ, when you were baptised; and by baptism, too, you have been raised up with him through your belief in the power of God who raised him from the dead. You were dead, because you were sinners and had not been circumcised: he has brought you to life with him, he has forgiven us all our sins. He has overridden the Law, and cancelled every record of the debt that we had to pay; he has done away with it by nailing it to the cross.

Gospel Acclamation Rom 8:15bc

Alleluia, alleluia! You have received the Spirit which makes us God's children, and in that Spirit we call God our Father.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 11:1-13

Once Jesus was in a certain place praying, and when he had finished one of his disciples said, 'Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'Say this when you pray: "Father, may your name be held holy, your kingdom come; give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive each one who is in debt to us. And do not put us to the test." He also said to them: 'Suppose one of you has a friend and goes to him in the middle of the night to say, "My friend, lend me three loaves, because a friend of mine on his travels has just arrived at my house and I have nothing to offer him"; and the man answers from inside the house, "Do not bother me. The door is bolted now, and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up to give it you." I tell you, if the man does not get up and give it him for friendship's sake, persistence will be enough to make him get up and give his friend all he wants.

'So I say to you: Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. For the one who asks always receives; the one who searches always finds; the one who knocks will always have the door opened to him. What father among you would hand his son a stone when he asked for bread? Or hand him a snake instead of a fish? Or hand him a scorpion if he asked for an egg? If you then, who are evil, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

Communion Antiphon Ps 102: 2

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Eccl 1:2 2:21-23; 2nd reading: Col 3:1-5 9-11; Gospel: Lk 12:13-21

THE PARABLES PODCAST Why are the parables of Jesus so important and why do they still resonate today? The Parables Podcast is a new fortnightly se-ries featuring Archbishop Mark Coleridge's insights and reflections on the parables of Jesus. In the first episode, he gives an overview of the parables, what they were and how they were used. You can listen to these podcast by subscribing to our channel "Archdiocese of Brisbane" on your preferred podcast app, or by downloading from the link: https://brisbanecatholic.org.au/articles/ep-1-introduction-to-the-parables/ and https://brisbanecatholic.org.au/articles/the-parable-podcasts-5-the-labourers-and-the-vineyard/ Over the coming months the six top parables, as voted for by parishioners on social media, will be covered by the Archbishop. The next podcast episode is due July 31.

ECUMENICAL PEACE ACTION INVITATION from FRANCISCAN

SCHOOLS AUSTRALIA God calls us to love your neighbour as yourself. This calls us, as people of faith to choose peace. In light of recent events in Christchurch and Sri Lanka and the discord of world tolerance for 'the other', Fran-ciscan Schools Australia together with Brisbane Arch- bishop Mark Coleridge, Aboriginal elders and elders of world religions invite you to a peace action event in which we can promote harmony, reconciliation and advo-cate for peace. We see the event as an opportunity for leadership, compassion and love.

The invitation to the Ecumenical Thirsting for Peace Action on Wednesday 07 Au- gust 2019 at 5:20pm at Bris-bane City Hall is open to all. This is a free event however registration via the FSA website is critical so that we have some idea of numbers. Students, staff and other members of school communities are most welcome to attend this event.
